

Dear Cumberland community,

Hello, my name is Eva Guo and I am running for the position of Youth parliament member because I have always had a passion for politics so this is a perfect opportunity for me.

Firstly, I understand that young people nowadays struggle with mental health issues, for example, anxiety, depression and low self-esteem which comes as a result of bullying, peer pressure or academic pressure and more that can cause these problems.

Therefore, if you give me your trust as your youth representative, I will work towards helping people's mental health, for example, organising mental health and wellbeing services in schools and communities as I believe our voice matters, and together, we can shape a brighter future.

Secondly, to boost environmental and local farm culture awareness in the countryside, a community event could be organized. This event could feature up-cycling and recycling activities to promote environmental consciousness. In addition, it can include a highlight of local jobs allowing young people to learn about opportunities in the community. As a result, if I was chosen the community would have a better environment for many and a healthy environment, as I recognise that global climate change is a serious threat.

Finally, I recognise that students with learning disabilities often experience difficulties in our education systems. If elected, I will advocate for more supportive learning environments. Furthermore, this includes more educational opportunities such as specialised tutoring, assistive technologies and tailored learning programs to improve students learning ability to their full potential.

To conclude, I think these aims will make a positive impact because if given your trust as being elected as your youth parliament member, I am devoted to working relentlessly to bring these ideas to life, ensuring every person is able to have their voices heard and every individual has a chance to make a better future.

Thank you for reading my manifesto and giving me the opportunity to share my thoughts and ideas for the younger generation. Good luck to all the other candidates.

Yours Sincerely,

Eva Guo.
